

The most famous town of this area is Como, known for its silk industry and it's ideal for the shopping.

Proceeding towards Laglio there is a picturesque small village called Cernobbio.

Those who enjoy trekking can go for mountain walks along the mule path which winds towards the neighbouring village, Carate.

Another interesting itinerary is that of climbing towards the Intelvi Valley up to Sighignola, called the "Balcony of Italy" for its extraordinary view over the Alps.

Crossing several villages like Lenno, where the lake creates a small gulf, you can get to the Comacina Island using the boat service.

Villa Carlotta, a luxurious Eighteenth Century building is nearby, in Tremezzo. It is surrounded by a park containing about five hundred species of plants and flowers as well as the marble statues made by Antonio Canova. Tours of the Villa are possible from spring to autumn from 9.00 am to 6.00 p.m.

Not far from there, the two banks of Lario, are connected by a ferry from Cadenabbia to Bellagio, known as " the Pearl of Lake Como".

Golfers will appreciate a famous golf club in Menaggio with its natural 18-hole course.
